INTRODUCTION

In preparing the genealogy of the "Rondot" family, the thought is to give a brief account of our ancestors, along with there travels and adventures. The stories are restricted to those events which connect themselves with uncovered facts.

HISTORICAL INFORMATION

The reasons for immigration of the "Rondot" family from the small village of Athesans, Provence of Haute Saone, France, to the United States and Canada, can be gleaned from historical facts.

By 1840 the government of France was stabilized, however Louis Philippe scoffed at religion and pruned the state budget for religious activities and expelled some religious orders. The Pope repeatedly advised the clergy to remain loyal to the King. Father Montalembert a young priest set out in the 1840's to fuse all Catholics into a single political bloc and sphere of action. He demanded the right to establish Catholic secondary schools competitive with those of the state and to operate them without state interference. The slogan was Liberty of Education. The emotional impact was, great, here at last was the commitment to the principle of liberty and of equal and fair treatment. This campaign succeeded by 1850.

Financial scandals in 1847 implicating exministers, who were charged with accepting bribes, playing favorites with government concessions which endangered public morale and brought discontent among the urban workers. The cumulative impact from long endured misery, compounded by the depression that began in 1846-1847, was the gravest economic crisis of Louis Philipp's reign. The same wave of bad weather that produced the great Irish famine grought a series of crop failures in France as well. Food became scarce and expensive. The price of wheat rose 250 percent and the government was driven to import foodstuffs. The agrarian crisis rapidly affected the whole economy, many mines and factories shut down, some new railway companys went bankrupt, unemployment spiralled upward.

From these historical facts we can see why the young men of the "Rondot" family wanted to move to better opportunities.

FAMILY HISTORY

The "RONDOT" family came from the village of Athesans, in the Department of Haute Soane, France. It is located north and a little east from the town of Besancon.

According to a discussion the writer had with Mr. Alphonse Rondot, of Stoney Point, Ontario, his uncle Dr. Ernest Rondot had visited the "Rondot" homestead, some time after he completed his internship and prior to World War II. At the time of his visit the house the Rondot's had lived in was still being used as a home, it was also my understanding that the Doctor had taken some photographs, but where they are is not known, as the Doctor had no family and no survivors.

In 1976 Mr. Philip Rondot, of Fort Wayne visited the village and obtained a few photographs and found evidence of the Rondot name, in the local cemetery, World War I memorial, Catholic Church records, and the village town hall and library. However the language problem and the length of time did not permit very deep research.

"Rondot"

Extracted and translated from the French language book

PATRONYMES OF MIDDLEVAL ORIGIN.

The explanations are drawn from the Du Cange glossaries, from the Lacurne of St. Palage and Godefroy glossaries which shall be indicated by the following abbreviations.

Du Cange - D
Lacurne of St. Palage -L
Godefroy - G

As we have previously said it is well understood that for many of these names the etymology that is proposed is only given as a possible history and that there may be in all likely hood one or several others, even more probable in their nature that could be found else where.

For example POL could be a name of an area (neighborhood) Du Cange attributes to this name the meaning of "SEA". But it is probable that the patronyme is derived from St. Pal in the majority of cases.

"ROND" is rarer. This term is frequent in present family names, almost exclusively in northern derivations, RONDEL, RONDET, RONDEAU, RONDELET, RONDOT,. On the contrary the "Redon" (4) The REDON from the west, attributed to the city of Redon.

Of the Midi, (Central France mountains), are numerous REDONEL, REDONNEL, in Savoy and the area around Leyon, Rioud, and Rioudel.

From
The pictorial history of Fort Wayne
The cholera scourge

The people of Fort Wayne, in the midst of their prosperity and progress towards better material things, were stricken with alarm and horror when, in the summer of 1849, the deadly cholera crept with in its borders and claimed six hundred of its people before the close of the year 1854.

The disease made its appearance first in Lahore, in India, in 1845, spread to Europe, and found its way to New York and New Orleans in 1848. Alarm spread to the cities of the Mississippi and Wabash valleys, and Fort-Wayne commenced early in the spring of 1849 to prepare for the coming of the dread visitor from the Orient. With a view of "adopting stringent measures to prevent the ravages of the approaching cholera", The City Council met in special session April 12, and took action to establish a hospital at the county farm. A log house, which formerly was a soap and candle factory, belonging to Asa Fairfield, was hastily taken to the farm, and made ready for the care of victims who were in need of its accommodations all too soon. A log house at the corner of Calhoun and Berry streets, owned by James Barnett, also was fitted up to receive patients. The Council appointed a representative citizen in each ward "to examine the streets, alleys, stables, pig sties, cellars, standing pools of water, slaughter houses and other places," with power to wipe out every "nuisance" which might invite the disease to Fort-Wayne. The Council caused handbills to be placed in every house instructing the people in their personal conduct and in the use of lime and other disinfectants which were provided liberally.

With appalling rapidity and certainty, the disease crept in from the east and south, claiming hundreds of victims in unfortunate towns. At a meeting held in the courthouse "in view of the rapid approach of the malignant epidemic, threatening us and devastating many of our large towns" a special appeal was made for a more earnest co-operation, and in response to this the council not only redoubled its activities but appointed Friday, August 2, "as day of humiliation, fasting and prayer, during which time no secular work was to be allowed". Every citizen was requested to attend divine services in the churches on that day, and the ministers led the people in earnest prayers for deliverance from the pestilence.

Directly after the announcement of the dreadful truth that the disease had claimed its first victim in Fort Wayne A canal laborer. Rev. Julian Benoit, of St. Augustine's Church ( the cathedral ), offered the use of the school house for a hospital. The Sisters of Charity became immediately of great service as nurses, for now were many homes, chiefly on east Washington, east Jefferson and east Wayne streets, afflicted. On August 22, the council appointed a committee to procure "three strong, stout-hearted, able-bodied men to attend to the sick and suffering". The committee reported its success, but the names of the heroes of the hour do not appear in the record.

Many fled from the afflicted community. Medical treatment seemed to be ineffectual. "Drs. C. E. Sturgis and H. Wehmer worked together during this epidemic in every stricken home," says the late Dr. B.S. Woodward, who also gave of his whole efforts to the relief of the sufferers. "The favorite remedy was tremendous doses of calomel, the panacea of that age, and cayenne pepper." During each of the years 1849, 1852 and 1854 there were about two hundred deaths here.

A. G. Barnett, in 1916, referring to this dark period, tells of his experience in 1852, He says.

"My father and my mother, with two sisters and a brother took refuge from the cholera by going to the home of Thomas Hamilton, north of Leo. I stayed to care for matters at home. We lived then on west Berry street, where the Wolf and Dessauer store is today, and where a peach orchard occupied the back yard. I remember watching the many funerals at the Methodist Church across the street, where the Anthony Hotel stands".

FAMILY HISTORY

Claude Francis Rondot, a native of Athesans, Province of Haute Saone, France, was born January 15, 1793. He married Marie Jeanne Pataillot, about January 18, 1820, and they raised a family of six known children, four sons and two daughters. John August, born January 6, 1821, married Dorothea Marie Blanchette in Canada about 1850; Charles Alexander, born May 27, 1822, married Melintine Tournier, March 11, 1855 in Allen Co. Indiana; John Baptist, born August 17, 1824, never married; Hortense Julia, born July 11, 1826, married Francis Julliard, October 21, 1852 in Allen Co. Indiana, after Mr. Julliard's death November 20, 1856, she then married Joseph Cochoit on October 21, 1858; Justine, born January 27, 1828, married Claude Francis Ternet December 27, 1852 in Allen Co. Indiana. Charles Emile, born _____ 1830, married Sophia Dequindre, about 1850 in Ontario, Canada.

Claude, along with his wife Marie and daughter Hortense left France March 25, 1850 and arrived Port of New York on ship "GALLIA" May 9, 1850. From there they traveled to Stoney Point, Ontario, Canada, where the sons John August and Charles Emile were married, this occurred we think in June 1850.

Land records of Allen County, Indiana, shows that Claude Francis, bought 80 acres of land in Perry Township NW $\frac{1}{4}$  Sect 34 on August 3, 1850. The census records of the same year indicate that John August and his young wife were living with them. It is also recorded that John August on March 21 1851, bought 25 acres of land from his father and on August 10, 1853, Charles Alexander bought 20 acres. These transactions would indicate that father and sons worked together clearing the land, farming and establishing pioneer homes in this area. Mrs. Rondot (Marie), died in year 1854\* and Claude died in 1855\*. No county death records have been located, however all evidence indicates that they died in Perry Township. His friend and neighbor Florentine Roy, acted as witness and interpreter to the writing of his will, February 16, 1855, and which was probated August 28, 1855. The family were members of the Catholic Church, and more than likely took part with other French families of the area, in establishment of the New France Mission, now known as St. Vincents De Paul Church.

The above listed young men are also presumed to be some relation to Claude Francis Rondot family. They were listed on ships passengers list, ship "Galla" arriving at Port of New York 5-9-I850, along with Claude and Marie and daughter Hortense. Since their names have not shown up on any census records in Allen County, Indiana, it must be presumed they were friends or they stayed in Canada. They were not listed in Claude Francis's will in I855.

-Notes-

Death dates of Claude and Marie were established from information contained in letter written by John August to his brother Emile in Canada. The letter written in French is in hands of Alphonse Rondot family. Added 8-I-I980.

FAMILY HISTORY

John August Rondot, a prominent pioneer of Washington, Township, Allen County, Indiana, was born January 6, 1821 in Athesans, France, the eldest son of Claude Francis and Marie Jeanne (Pataillot) Rondot, of France.

He left his native country June 14, 1846, emigrated to America and reached Fort Wayne in July 1850, by way of Canada, where he met and married Dorothea Marie Blanchette of Belle Riviere, Ontario, Canada. Soon after their marriage they migrated to Perry Township, Allen, County, Ind. where his father bought 80 acres of land on the east side of Coldwater Road, in section 34, 3/4 miles north of the Dupont Road. They worked together, clearing the land and built a farm home, which they shared. In March 1851, John purchased 25 acres of this land from his father for his own home. On October 9th, 1852, he along with his father and brothers Charles A., and John Baptist, made Declarations of intent to become citizens.

In June 1856 John A. purchased a 40 acre farm in Jefferson Township, section 7, just east of New Haven on the old Edgerton road, where he lived with his growing family, until April 30, 1863 when they removed to Washington, Township, section 4, on a 75 acre farm, near the old Bethel Church and Cemetery. They raised a large family of seven sons and eight daughters. He continued to live at the farm home until his death on January 30, 1899 and is buried beside his wife.

FAMILY GROUP PICTURE

The John August Rondot family group picture, was taken, we believe, on occasion of either 45th wedding anniversary or John's 75th birthday. Since he was born in January and the picture was made in the green period of the year, the logical assumption is, 45th wedding anniversary. This could be either 1895 or 1896.

Mrs. Pearl (Rondot) Roesener has original picture from which copies have been made. She was about 3 years old when the picture was taken, she is in the arms of her father Eugene, second man in from the right hand side.

Much time and consultation was required to determine and name the 49 members of the Rondot family present on this picture. Considerable assistance, and help was given by Mrs. Roesener, Mrs. George Stouder and the Plank family, in this part of the identification and numbering project.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to the study of the properties of the function  $f(x)$  defined by the equation

It is well known that this function is the arctangent function, i.e.  $f(x) = \arctan x$ .

2. In the second part of the paper we shall study the properties of the function  $g(x)$  defined by the equation

$$g(x) = \int_0^x \frac{t}{1+t^2} dt$$

It is easy to see that this function is the logarithm of the square of the square root of  $1+x^2$ , i.e.  $g(x) = \frac{1}{2} \ln(1+x^2)$ .

3. In the third part of the paper we shall study the properties of the function  $h(x)$  defined by the equation

It is easy to see that this function is the difference between the function  $g(x)$  and the function  $f(x)$ , i.e.  $h(x) = g(x) - f(x)$ .

4. In the fourth part of the paper we shall study the properties of the function  $k(x)$  defined by the equation

CHAPTER 1

The first part of the book is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the structure of the atom. It is shown that the atom is a system of particles, which are bound together by forces of attraction. The forces of attraction are of two kinds: the forces of attraction between the nucleus and the electrons, and the forces of attraction between the electrons themselves. The forces of attraction between the nucleus and the electrons are of the Coulomb type, and the forces of attraction between the electrons themselves are of the exchange type.

The second part of the book is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the structure of the molecule. It is shown that the molecule is a system of particles, which are bound together by forces of attraction. The forces of attraction are of two kinds: the forces of attraction between the atoms, and the forces of attraction between the electrons. The forces of attraction between the atoms are of the Coulomb type, and the forces of attraction between the electrons are of the exchange type.

The third part of the book is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the structure of the crystal. It is shown that the crystal is a system of particles, which are bound together by forces of attraction. The forces of attraction are of two kinds: the forces of attraction between the atoms, and the forces of attraction between the electrons. The forces of attraction between the atoms are of the Coulomb type, and the forces of attraction between the electrons are of the exchange type.

FAMILY HISTORY

William Howard Yerks, born in Fort Wayne, Allen County, Indiana, 12-23-1920, the youngest son of Dorwin R. _____ and Mary _____ (Lake) Yerks, natives of Allen County.

William (known as Bill) attended the rural schools, and graduated from Woodburn High School. He assisted his father on the farm, raising Hi Bred seed corn, until his enlistment into the Marine Corps, during the early days of World War II. He received his basic training at Camp Pendleton, San Diego, California.

He was married 11-30-1944, to Miss Elizabeth Louise Rondot. She was born 1-21-1922 in Fort Wayne, the daughter of Alfred Isador and Walburga Katherine (Getty) Rondot.

Bill, upon completion of his military training, embarked for the South Pacific, where he was engaged in heavy battles to retake islands then controlled by the Japanese. Upon his return from overseas, he was stationed at Cherry Point, North Carolina. He never talked very much about his war experiences, except to say it was rough. To this day he suffers reoccurring bouts of jungle fever.

After his discharge from service he returned to Springfield Township, near Harlan, where he and his wife settled on an old 69 acre farm, near his parents home.

They had a family of three daughters, two of whom survive, Diane Elaine, born 10-15-1945; Susan _____ born, 11-11-1948, died after three years illness, 5-1-1967; and Darlene Marie, born 6-16-1951.

Mr. Yerks followed farm work for a time, then obtained employment with the Zollner (Piston) Corp. where he is still working. As a part time job, he has stump removing Equipment that cuts up the tree stumps without taking them from the ground. Hunting, especially for larger game is his hobby, and he has been successful on many trips to Wyoming.

Mr. & Mrs. Yerks had a new farm home built while their family was growing up, and still live there. They are members of St. John's Catholic Church, at New Haven.

FAMILY HISTORY

Charles August Rondot, was born in Perry Township, Allen County, Indiana, 4-9-1854, the second son and second child of John August Rondot, who immigrated to America from Athesans, France, thru the Port of Baltimore 7-24-1846. His mother Dorothea Marie Blanchette was a native of Canada.

When Charles was a baby his parents moved to a farm in Jefferson Township, near New Haven, where they lived until about 1863. They then purchased a farm in Washington Township, near Wallen, Indiana, where he attended the local school and grew to manhood, helping his parents with the farm work.

He was married 5-10-1881, at St. Patrick's church, Arcola, to Miss Julia Ellen Clark, born 12-25-1856, in Whitley County, the daughter of James S. Clark of Ireland and Margaret Brown of Pennsylvania.

The young couple started out by living on a small farm they had purchased in Washington Township, near the home of his parents. In 1884 they moved to Fort Wayne and bought a home at 10 Mary Street.

Mr. Rondot worked on various kinds of jobs, helper, laborer, stoker, gas maker and railroad fireman, hostler and locomotive engineer.

They raised a family of seven children, Loretta Blanche, born 4-18-1882; Julian H _____, born 8-26-1884; Charles Ambrose, born 7-1-1886; Margaret Blanche, born 3-25-1894; William James, born 10-28-1889; Mary Edna, born 5-17-1896, died 7-17-1896; and Corrine A _____ born 1-3-1899.

The Rondot family lived on Mary Street until 1908 when they moved to new home at 417 Greenwood Ave.

In 1905 Mr. Rondot was injured about his hips in a fall off a locomotive, but returned to work and was an engineer for the Nickel Plate Railroad at the time of his death 4-22-1912. He is buried at the Catholic Cemetery. His wife Julia carried on the task of raising the family, and died after a short illness 7-12-1924, and is buried beside her husband.

The first of these is the question of the origin of the human race. It is a question which has been discussed for many years, and has given rise to many different theories. The most common of these is the theory of evolution, which holds that the human race has evolved from a common ancestor. This theory is supported by many facts, and is generally accepted by the scientific community. Another theory is the theory of polygenism, which holds that the human race has evolved from many different ancestors. This theory is also supported by many facts, and is also generally accepted by the scientific community. A third theory is the theory of monogenism, which holds that the human race has evolved from a single ancestor. This theory is also supported by many facts, and is also generally accepted by the scientific community.

FAMILY HISTORY

Julian H _____ Rondot, born 8-26-1884, in Fort Wayne, Allen County, Indiana, the first son and second child of Charles August and Julia Ellen (Clark) Rondot, residents of Fort Wayne.

Julian, was born shortly after his parents moved to their home at 8 Marys Street, which was off Runnion Ave., near the Knitting Mills. He attended Cathedral Parochial school and when he reached working age, obtained employment as a former at the Fort Wayne Knitting Mill's. The City directory indicated he worked there until about 1906 when he moved to Minnesota, where he was working when his father, Charles, passed away. How long he stayed in Minnesota after his father's passing is not known, however.

He was married 4-II-1914 (bk40 pg379), here in Fort Wayne, to Viola B. (Norris) Haas, and they had two children, born in Fort Wayne, Paul J. Rondot, born 8-I-1915 ch5-pg 238 and Charles E. Rondot born II-IO-1916 ch6-pg53I.

During a period of IO-30-1918 to 4-9-1920 he was employed as a helper and machinist by the Pennsylvania Railroad, he left there to work for the Dudlo Manufacturing Co.

Further research is required to trace his moving to Mishawaka, Indiana. His wife died there and he died there II-28-1948, his obituary indicates his burial place as Fort Wayne Catholic Cemetery.

There is little information in regards to the children, or by now grand children, however the 1977 Mishawaka Telephone Directory, lists the following.

FAMILY HISTORY

Charles E _____ Stuck, born 9-13-1892, in Fort Wayne, Allen County, Indiana, the son of William J _____ and Annie _____ (Godfrey) Stuck, natives of Allen County.

The maternal side of the Stuck family can be traced back to the last Indian Chief Godfrey, of the Miami Indian tribe.

Charles was born in their home on the Winchester road, south of Fort Wayne, which was part of the original Richardville Indian Reservation. He attended the area schools where he received his education. In his younger days he worked on the farm and in the neighboring gravel pits.

On October 28, 1913, he was married to Miss Margaret Blanche Rondot, the daughter of Charles August and Julia Ellen (Clark) Rondot, natives of Allen County. She was born in Fort Wayne 3-25-1894, and attended Cathedral Catholic school.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuck had a family of four children, three of whom survive, Mildred _____ born 12-20-1914; Charles Albert born 1-3-1916; Edward Roy born 11-4-1917; James L _____ born 11-5-1930, died 2-5-1931;

Mr. Stuck owned and operated the Charles Stuck Stone and Gravel Company for a number of years, and during World War II period, he worked at the General Electric Co., leaving after illness forced him to give up working.

The Stuck family has always lived in the family home, (he having been born there) on the Winchester road. Their home and the surrounding area are steeped with the history and traditions of early living in this part of the county, and its nearness to the St. Marys river and the early days of river transportation have left its mark.

Mr. Stuck passed away 8-20-1952, at age of 59, after a long illness, and is buried at Prairie Grove Cemetery. Margaret his wife has carried the burden of raising her family and is now enjoying the grand children.

FAMILY HISTORY

Julius A _____ Rondot, was born in Perry Township, Allen County, Indiana, 7-II-1855. He was the* third child of a family of fifteen children. His father, John August Rondot, immigrated to America from Athesans, France, thru the Port of Baltimore 7-24-1846. His mother Dorothea Marie Blanch-Ette was a native of Belle Riviere, Ontario, Canada.

Shortly after Julius birth his parents moved to a Jefferson Township farm, near New Haven, where he spent his childhood. In 1863 they purchased a farm in Washington Township, near Wallen, Indiana, where he grew to man hood, attended rural schools, worked on the farm, and later was fireman on Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad.

On 5-10-1881, he married Miss Emma Louise Lupton, in Allen County, Indiana, (book I4 page 229). She was born 2-5-1859, the daughter of Joseph Thomas and Sarah Wesley (Chambers) Lupton. They had one son Harry E. born 9-3-1881. At the time Julius was employed by the Gr & I. R.R. as an engineer and lived in Fort Wayne. His wife Emma died shortly after Harry was born, and grandmother Dorothea is credited for raising young Harry thru early childhood.

Allen County land records show that Julius bought 107 acres of land in section 20 Cedar Creek Township, north of Fort Wayne on 10-31-1883 and was recorded owner until 1898.

He married Miss Olive A. Stein in Kalamazoo, Michigan, 2-18-1890, and they lived in Durand, Michigan., where he was employed by Ann Arbor R. R. also the Grand Trunk R. R. as engineer. Five children were born of this marriage. Russel 9-9-1890, Edith Lyle 3-6-1892, Frank 9-20-1894, Ruth 2-4-1897, who died as infant, and Herman Julius 10-12-1904.

In October 1907 they moved to Amarillo, Texas where he was engineer for Fort Worth and Denver R. R. They resided at 808 Bryan Ave., for many years. He died at age of 89 years 6-5-1945 and is buried in Memorial Cemetery, Blue Bonnett section lot 109 space 6 (No marker) and his wife Olive A. (Stein) who died less than a year later, 4-15-1946 at age 77 rests beside him (space 5).

FAMILY HISTORY

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES.

Recently celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary were Brother and Mrs. J. A. Rondot of Amarillo, Texas. They received their friends at their home, 808 south Bryan Street on this occasion, and were the recipients of many cards and telegrams of congratulations, as well as lovely gifts.

Brother Rondot, now 84 years of age started his Railroad career as fireman on the G.R.&I between Fort Wayne and Grand Rapids Mich., in 1880. After three years he was promoted to the right and two years later joined the B. of L.E. in 1885.

In 1887 he was chairman of a committee to ask for overtime after being on duty 12 hours. At that time, as he remembers, the pay for an engineer was about $3.50 per trip, regardless of the number of hours it took to make it.

Later he went to the Ann Arbor Railroad at Durand, Mich., then to the Grand Trunk, also out of Durand, and finally entered the service of the Fort Worth & Denver City Railroad, at Amarillo, Texas, October 10, 1907, here he finished his last 20 years of railroad service, retiring November 1, 1927.

Brother Rondot belongs to Div. 574, Amarillo, Texas, having been a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers for over 54 years. His son Russel Rondot now with the Grand Trunk and Western out of Detroit, Mich., also his son in law I.M. Littrell, with the Fort Worth & Denver, out of Wichita Falls, Texas, are both engineers, and belong to the B. of L.E.

FAMILY HISTORY

HARRY E _____ Rondot, born 9-3-1881, in Fort Wayne, Allen County, the son of Julius A _____ and Emma Louise (Lupton) Rondot, residents of Fort Wayne.

Harry was still an infant when his mother died, 9-6-1882, and his grandmother Dorothea is credited with nursing him thru his early childhood. He was baptised at the Cathedral, Fort Wayne, 10-3-1881. Not much is known of Harry's early youth, however it is safe to presume that he attended Schools in Fort Wayne and Durand, Michigan, this based on the fact that he was about 9 years old when his father, Julius, remarried and moved to Durand.

The Fort Wayne City directory shows that young Harry worked for the Pennsylvania Railroad, as a fireman in 1901-1902. We next locate him in Indianapolis, Indiana, where he met and married Miss Nettie Lenor Renn, in 1-25-1904. She was born 1-6-1886, in Columbus, Indiana, the daughter of John Henry and Clara _____ (McCalip) Renn.

They raised a family of three children, Maecellus Egbert, born 4-24-1905; LeRoy Marvin, born 5-1-1908; Vera Mae, born 3-26-1914.

Mr. Rondot worked on the Police Force in Indianapolis, for about three years 1909-1912, as a Patrolman on west 10th Street. He also did construction work with his wifes grand father Renn, who lived in Jennings's County, Indiana. Some time later he was Manager of a Grain Elevator at Dana, Illinois. He and his wife Nettie seperated in 1924, and he returned to Fort Wayne and worked for McMillen's Feed Co.

Harry remarried 9-2-1929, to Mrs. Velma Marie Hollopeter (Harnish) and they lived in Churubusco, Whitley, County, Indiana. He Died 8-19-1969 and is buried in Leo Cemetery, at Leo, Indiana.

FAMILY HISTORY

Eugene Frank Rondot, was born 2-18-1857, on the farm in Jefferson Township, just east of New Haven, Indiana, on the old Edgertown Road. He was the fourth child of a family of fifteen children. His father John August Rondot immigrated to America from Athesans, France, thru the port of Baltimore 7-24-1846, his mother Dorothea Marie Blanchette was a native of Canada.

When Eugene was about six years old his parents purchased a farm in Washington Township, near Wallen, Indiana and Moved there in the spring of 1863. He attended the rural schools in the area, and worked on the farm until he was a young man. He later took employment with Mr. Fred Rosselot, on East Columbia Street in Fort Wayne.

On the 7th of May 1885, he married Miss Anna Alice Ervin, here in Allen County (bkI6pg287). She was born 2-28-1863, the daughter of Jeremiah Ervin and Rebecca A. Opliger of Washington Township.

Five children were born of this union, Arthur Charles, 2-23-1886; Edward Milton, 3-24-1888; Grace Margaret, 5-25-1890; Pearl Alice, 4-24-1892; and Earl Eugene, 4-13-1898.

City directory records indicate that the family lived for many years on Wells Street in Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Anna Rondot, the mother, passed away in June 1903, at age of 40 years. Her untimely death created a real hardship for the small children and the father Eugene, with the help of the older children and friends the family grew and they all became good men and women of the community.

Mr. Eugene F. Rondot, died at the age of 73, on 1-31-1929 and was buried at Lindenwood Cemetery, Fort Wayne.

According to his daughter Mrs Pearl Roesener his body was later moved to Greenlawn Cemetery.

FAMILY HISTORY

Edward Milton Rondot, born 3-24-1888, in Fort Wayne, Allen County, Indiana, the second son and second child of Eugene Frank and Anna Alice (Ervin) Rondot, residents of Fort Wayne.

Edward's parents lived at 1817 Wells Street, and he obtained his education in the area public schools. His Mother, Anna died when he was about 15 years old, 6-6-1903 and he carried on in spite of this great loss. The Fort Wayne city directory shows that he worked at various kinds of jobs that advanced his mechanical inclinations.

1904	Clerk	M.L.Jones	Boards	1817 Wells
1905	Apprentice		"	"
1906	Bench Hand		"	"
1908	Machinist	G. E. Co.	"	"
1909	Machinist	Rolf&Martin Co.	"	"

From the above it is safe to assume that he left for California some time around 1910, and he started to work for Southern California Edison Power Co. about 1911.

He was married 5-31-1916, to Mrs Zella Verona Coffey (Henry) in Los Angeles. She was born 5-8-1885, in _____ Kansas, the daughter of Alexander and Josephine (_____) Coffey, of Kansas. The marriage license issued in Ventura County, California.

The Couple lived in Alhambra, Calif. and they had two children, Edward Eugene, born 1-4-1917 and Zella Violet, born 4-12-1920.

Mr. Rondot advanced to position of General Manager of Transportation, retiring after 42 years of service. He used his inventive mind to influence truck manufacturers to change rear end ratio's to fit the California mountains and hilly roads they traveled installing Hydro electric, transformers, generators and hi-tension lines. He wrote papers covering the many inovative changes he brought about. No doubt stories could be written about his encounters with snows and bad weather in the High Sierra's.

His wife Zella, preceeded him in death, passing away in 10-30- 1963.

Ed, as he was known, died 9-15-1964 and is buried in Inglewood Park Cemetery, Inglewood, California.

This closes the chapter on a hard working, loving father who left a son to carry foreward the "Rondot" name.

-Notes-

Mrs Rondot, had a daughter Hazel Henry by her 1st Marriage, Zella was an artist in her own right, being an entertainer and professional whistler.

FAMILY HISTORY

John Christian Roesener, born 2-3-1887, in Fort Wayne, Allen County, Indiana, the son of Frederick C _____ and Wilhelmine _____ (Rolfe) Roesener, residents of Fort Wayne.

John, obtained his education in the public schools near his parents home on Stophlet Street. He started to work at an early age and was later employed as machinist and tool maker, at the G. E. Co.

He married Miss Pearl Alice Rondot, 8-4-1911. They having met at G. E. where she also worked. Pearl, was born 4-24-1892, in Fort Wayne, Allen County, Indiana, the second daughter and fourth child of Eugene Frank and Anna Alice (Ervin) Rondot, residents of Fort Wayne.

The Roesener family always lived on Stophlet Street, and they raised a family of six children, Helen Mae, born 2-23-1912; Dorothy Edith, born 4-12-1913; Edward John, born 7-6-1915; Alyce Marie, born 1-16-1917; Eugene Frederick, born 6-11-1918; and Elizabeth Jane, born 12-9-1921.

Mr. Roesener worked at the General Electric most of his life. The writer recalls being assigned as an apprentice tool maker, about 1925, to assist John in the fabrication of very large dies, used for punching motor laminations. John was not a very big man, and it seems he always was assigned the largest jobs to work on. He was a good man to work for and with.

Mrs. Rondot, Pearl as she was known, was the keeper of several "Rondot" keepsakes. A large 8x10 group picture of the John August family, taken about 1893, also she has in her possession a small sword and sheath, it is supposed to have belonged to Claude Francis Rondot, her great grand father. There are no distinct markings that would give any clue as to its origin. It may have been part of his equipment, when he was in the French military service? This fact has never been researched. Or it could be a lodge emblem.

Mr. Roesener passed away after a short illness, 9-26-1949 and is buried in Greenlawn Memorial Park.

MAN FATALLY HURT BY TRAIN.

Found Unconscious at Hanna Street Crossing.

Eugene J. Rondot, 41, a resident and employe of the City Rescue Mission 200 block East Columbia Street, believed to have been struck by a Nickel Plate Railroad train at the Hanna Street crossing, died at 6:40 a.m. Sunday at the Methodist Hospital of a skull fracture.

Dr. Walter E. Kruse Deputy County Coroner said he would return a vertic of accidental death. Rondot either fell from a train or was struck by a slow moving string of cars. It appeared from the investigation. He suffered a severe scalp laceration and friction burns about the back in addition to the injury. Members of the crew of a west bound train discovered the body lying just south of the south bound main track, and called police. Rondot, is thought to have been struck by an east bound train which passed over the crossing about 5:30 a.m. Acquaintances said they had last seen Rondot Saturday afternoon.

Surviving the train victim are a Half-Brother, Glen Rondot and a Half-Sister Mrs. Dora Christie, both of this city. The body was taken to the Chalfant-Perry-Pook Funeral Home and arrangements for services had not been completed Sunday night.

When John was 24 years old, he married Miss Josephine A. Rondot, the daughter of John August and Dorothea Marie (Blanchette) Rondot, early French settlers in Allen County. Miss Rondot was born 6-21-1861, in Jefferson Township, Allen County, Indiana. She was about 2 years of age when her parents moved to a farm in Washington Township, near Wallen, Indiana.

The youngest daughter, Blanche, was about 4 years old when her mother Josephine, died 10-1-1898, after a lingering illness. She is buried in St. Vincent's Cemetery, on old Auburn road.

Several years later Mr. Payton remarried, 6-24-1900 to Mary _____ Leize. No research has been made on the later years of this marriage. Mr Payton, passed away 8-6-1924, and is buried in Lindenwood Cemetery.

BOY AGE 10
DROWNS IN STREAM HERE

Allen Payton, son of Mr. & Mrs. Jesse Payton, dies in St. Joseph river: Body recovered by police.

Police early today recovered the body of Allen Payton, age 10, son of Mr. & Mrs. Jesse Payton, 3409 Holton Ave., who drowned in St. Joseph river below the new Water Works dam at Anthony Boulevard, Sunday afternoon.

The boy was taken from the water at 7:10 o'clock this morning.

Together with his parents and younger brother, the lad had gone to the river at about 3 p.m. Sunday to join hundreds of other persons bathing in the water at the natural beach below the water works dam.

Amid a group of about 15 other swimmers the boy plunged beneath the surface, not to rise again. The group was swimming in the shallow water along the west bank of the river. His mother missed him after an interval of 15 or 20 minutes from the time she saw him plunge into the stream and began a search for him.

Bathers Aid in Search.

Mrs. Payton at first, did not cause a public alarm but patrolled the bank several times in the belief that the boy had merely gotten out of her sight and was with other swimmers.

When the scores of other swimmers learned that it was probable the lad had drowned, a human chain was formed to search the river, the swimmers made their way as far down stream as the Parnell Avenue gridge.

Police were then notified and at 4:15 p.m. began dragging the stream with grapples. The afternoon crew was relieved at 11: p.m. by the night squad, which continued the search for the body. At 7:a.m. the day trick squad took over the search and 10 minutes later, Motorcycle Officer Clyde Burton and Patrolman Frank Spillner brought up the body with grappling hooks.

In Shallow Water

The body had been lying in about five feet of water and apparently was wedged between stones in the river bed, it was found 15 feet from the west retaining wall of the stream and about 50 or 75 feet below the dam. The spot was only a few feet from where the lad was last seen by his mother.

A girl aged 13, whose name was not learned was rescued by other swimmers when the search for the boy's body first started, when she got into deep water and feared herself drowning.

The Payton boy was learning to swim, it was his first visit to the river pool.

Surviving him are the parents, one brother, Wayne, and his grand mother F.F.Seeger of this city. The boy was a fourth grade pupil at the Irwin School. The body was removed to the C.M.Sloan & Sons Funeral Home.

NOLL

The death of Mrs. Fred Rosselot, 31 years old, 721 W. Fourth Street, occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital at 6:10 o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness of five days from influenza.

The decedent had been a life long resident of this city, and will be remembered to many as Miss Noll having been Miss Cecilie Noll before her marriage. A sad coincidence in the death of Mrs. Rosselot is the fact that just six months ago a daughter died, and six weeks ago her mother Mrs. Theresa Noll passed away. Mrs. Rosselot was born 2-27-1885, an active member of Precious Blood.

Surviving relatives besides the husband, are three children, Lucile, Kenneth and Charles, and the following brothers and sisters, Mrs Phil Minnick, Mrs Joe Panyard, Charles, Ben Nick, Walter, Loretta and Joe Noll.

The body was removed to the Noll Homestead 1417 Barthold Street, and funeral services.

Friday Jan 31, 1919.

Funeral Announcement.

ALLEN COUNTY PIONEER DEAD.

John C. Pfeiffer, one of the oldest pioneers of Allen County, died at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at his home corner of Wells Street and Archer Avenue. Death was due to infirmities of age, and followed an illness of nine months duration. He was 89 years of age.

Mr. Pfeiffer, was a native of Waltenberg, Germany, where his birth occurred on July 27, 1821, his childhood was spent in the fatherland until 1832, when he was eleven years of age. He emigrated to America with his parents locating in Buffalo N.Y. where he remained during the eight years following. In 1840 he came to Fort Wayne with his parents, by way of Lake Erie and the Maumee River. The trip from Maumee Ohio, to Fort Wayne on the river occupied nine days time. The boat being propelled by pole. Shortly after arriving in Fort Wayne, Mr. Pfeiffer with his father and brothers purchased a farm north of what is now the city limits, near the orphans home, where he remained until Jan. 18-1849. In the same year he was married to Margaret Bossler, and immediately thereafter bought another farm north of the city on what was then known as the Huntertown road. He built a log house and other buildings of the same material, and after residing on this farm and bringing it to a successful state of cultivation he sold it and purchased a farm on the Leo and Auburn road, which under his industry and able management soon became one of the best improved places in the vicinity of Fort Wayne.

It was while residing on this farm that the death of his wife occurred 1-7-1876. She was a native of Germany and her demise was mourned by hundreds of friends and acquaintances.

There was born to them six children, five are now living, Charles F. Pfeiffer, Carrie M. wife of Dr. E.T. Sites, Sophia S., Edward L., and Abbie E. Pfeiffer.

Mr. Pfeiffer devoted his attention to agricultural pursuits and stock raising until 1890, at which time he removed to Fort Wayne. Since that time he has lived a retired life, enjoying the fruits of his many years of toil and successful management.

He has always been a public spirited citizen and in addition to his private interests was for a number of years engaged in building plank roads and other highways throughout the county. Politically he was a Republican, but he had never aspired to official positions, having always been content with the life of business man and satisfied with the simple title of citizen. For a number of years he was director in the First National Bank. A position he resigned some time ago on account of defective hearing. He was also a partner for some years in the Bloomingdale Flouring Mills, but since retiring from active life had severed his connections with that and other enterprises. He was one of the early members of the Trinity Lutheran church and was the oldest member at the time of his death.

Funeral Arrangements will be announced later.

FAMILY HISTORY

William Frank Sunderland, born 5-2-1868, in Washington Township, Allen County, Indiana, the first son and second child of Peter H _____ and Theresa _____ (Haines) Sunderland, early residents in Washington Township. William's grand father, Benjamin Sunderland, came from Ohio and settled in the township in 1836.

William or Bill as he was known, received his early education in the area country schools, and assisted his parents in working and running the farm.

He was married 5-12-1897 to Miss Sophia Marian Rondot, the third daughter and eleventh child of John August and Dorothea Marie (Blanchette) Rondot, early French settlers in Washington Township. She was born 12-30-1868, and attended the neighboring rural schools near Wallen, Ind.

They raised two sons, Ernest Peter, born 3-3-1899 and Herbert William, born 1-18-1901. The family lived on the farm, located on the Goshen road, in Washington Township. The youngest son Herbert and his family still live there. Mrs. William (Sophia) Sunderland, died at age of 68 years, 6-30-1936, after a short illness, she is buried at Lindenwood Cemetery.

After his wife's death, Bill hired a housekeeper, Mrs. Anna Merrial Collet, who had a family of children, two of her smaller children stayed with her while she kept house for the Sunderland family, her mother, a widow, Emma _____ McComb, from Muncie, came to visit her several times. Bill and Emma became acquainted and were married about 1939 in Muncie, Indiana. Their marriage was short lived, however, as Emma died of cancer about eight months after they were wed. She is buried in Muncie.

Some time later, William met up with Mrs. Myrtle Baldwin, the widow of Frank Baldwin, she worked at the Fort Wayne Tailoring Company, also as a nurses aid at the Irene Byron Health Center, having come here from Evanston, Illinois.

About 1947 Mr. Sunderland, had a health problem and Myrtle persuaded him to go to a doctor she knew in Peoria, Illinois, for treatment. The doctor there recommended an operation, for correction of his problem. While they were in Peoria and prior to the surgery, they were married in the rectory. After his recovery they traveled about, until they were in a serious automobile accident, some where in Illinois, that resulted in considerable loss.

Mr. Sunderland, died in Fort Wayne, 1-26-1950, and Myrtle, went to live with a married daughter in Peoria. Later on she did return to Fort Wayne, where she lived in an apartment, under the name of Baldwin.

FAMILY HISTORY

David Harrison Plank, born 6-25-1877, in Washington Township, Allen County, Indiana, the only son of Philip _____ and Mary Malinda (Harris) Plank, early residents of Washington Township, near the village of Wallen.

Young, Dave, as he was known, received his early education by attending the country schools near his home. As he grew to manhood he became very proficient in the operation of his parents farm.

He was married 11-16-1898 to Miss Julia Mariam Rondot, the eighth daughter and fourteenth child of John August and Dorothea Marie (Blanchette) Rondot, early French settlers in Allen County. She was born 4-28-1874, at the Rondot farm near Wallen.

The Plank family settled down to farming and eventually resided on a 80 acre farm on the Till road, that was once part of her parents land. They raised a family of four children, Jesse, born 5-9-1899, Mary D., born 5-7-1902, Loretta Mae, born 11-27-1903, and Philip E., born 9-19-1906. About ten years after they were married, David's father was killed in an accident, and his mother, Mary, lived with them until her death.

Mrs. Plank, died suddenly at age of 61, years, of heart disease 1-24-1936, at the farm home. As I recall the weather at that time was bitter cold, especially the day of the funeral, which my parents Alfred I. Rondot, along with my wife Frances and I attended. She was buried in Hatfield Cemetery, but some years later was removed to Riverview Cemetery on the Carrol road.

A few years after his wife's passing, Dave was seriously ill, from a ruptured appendix and his recovery took a long period of time. The illness forced him to leave the operation of the farm, up to his children. He died at age of 74, at his farm home 9-3-1951, and is buried beside his wife in Riverview Cemetery. The children have continued to operate the farm.

FOUND DEAD BESIDE TRACKS

Philip Plank Killed by Lake Shore train.

Section men discover mangled body Tuesday morning near tracks, south of Academie Station.

The mangled body of Philip Plank, aged about 65 years, who resided about one half mile west of Wallen, was found early yesterday morning by section foreman Dick Adair, lying beside the Lake Shore tracks at a point about a mile south of Academie station. The dead man was lying some distance from the rails and although none of the trainmen made a report of an accident it is presumed that the south bound passenger train, due into this city at 9:35 p.m. struck the man and hurled him to his death.

The man was placed aboard a switch engine and brought to this city and removed to the Wellman Undertaking establishment where a close examination disclosed the extent of his injuries. Both legs and his back had been broken, but although a deep gash had been cut in the head the skull had not been fractured.

When the body was found it was lying face downward beside the track and foot prints in the sand beside the rails indicated that the man had been walking along the right of way. This belief is given color when it is known that the dead man had been drinking. There is no curve at the point where he was struck and the coroner therefore believes he may have been intoxicated at the time. Coroner Kesler, however made a careful investigation to assure himself that the man had not been the victim of foul play. His verdict will probably be that the old man met death by accident.

Plank was married and he and his wife made their homes with an only son David, who lives on a farm near Wallen. The dead man owned a farm and drew a pension as a Civil War veteran. He had $ 10 in his pocket at the time of his death.
